Source Code Access Instructions

Thank you for your interest in accessing CDC custom-developed source code.

The repository you are trying to access is currently private but may be shared upon request in accordance with CDC policies.

To request access, please follow the steps below:

1. Review the metadata entry and locate the 'privateid' field (e.g., github_374653 or gitlab_224352).
2. Send an email to: shareit@cdc.gov with the subject line:
"Request for source code repository: [privateid]"
3. Include the following information in your email:
  - Your federal agency or partner organization
  - Your full name and contact email
  - The project name or description
  - A short explanation of how the source code will be used

All requests are reviewed to ensure alignment with CDC's mission, data sharing policies, and appropriate use standards. You will receive a response within 10 business days.

Sincerely,

CDC Office of the Chief Information Officer
